Robin Stieler Appointed Clerk of the Board

(Santa Ana, CA) — The Board of Supervisors has appointed Robin Stieler, an 18-year veteran of the Clerk's office, to formally take over the duties of Clerk of the Board.

Stieler has filled the position on an interim basis since former Clerk Susan Novak retired in February.

"Robin has done a tremendous job tackling a tough assignment and has done so with energy and commitment," said Board of Supervisors Chairman Todd Spitzer, Third District. "She is a great example of how hard work can help someone rise through the ranks. I look forward to working with her in the years ahead."

Stieler was hired in January 1997 by then-Clerk Darlene Bloom and assigned to the Assessment Appeals division. In 2001, she moved to the Board Services Division and progressed in the office through a series of promotions. In December 2013, then-Clerk Novak promoted her again to the position of Chief Deputy.

Stieler is a member of the California Clerk of the Board of Supervisors Association, the California Association of Clerks and Election Officials and the Orange County City Clerks Association. She and her husband live in Yorba Linda.

The Clerk of the Board is selected by and reports to the Board of Supervisors. Under the terms of her three-year contract, Stieler will receive an annual salary of $140,317, which is the same amount earned by her predecessor.
